SURGICAL PATHOLOGIST

Opening in San Bernardino County, California

We are currently seeking a Surgical Pathologist with neuropathology subspecialty training to join our team.

Located in the Inland Empire, our San Bernardino County culture is one of teamwork, respect, integrity, and diversity. The area is characterized by its tremendous growth and innovation: nearly 500 new physicians have come aboard in the past five years from around the country, infusing the area with youthful energy and innovative ideas. San Bernardino County is also one of the region's largest centers, with two new hospitals, including Fontana Medical Center, a tertiary medical center with IM/FM residencies as well as medical students from the Kaiser Permanente School of Medicine and other nearby medical Schools. Additionally, we offer a wide range of tertiary and specialty services which affords physicians a myriad of opportunities for leadership, specialization, academic pursuits, and social activities.

San Bernardino County serves a population in the northeastern section of the LA Basin that's as diverse topographically as it is culturally. High-desert hiking, skiing at Big Bear, water-skiing on Lake Arrowhead, and mountain biking on Mt. Baldy are all close by and easily accessible to the coast—as are very affordable options for home-buying, excellent schools, and neighborhood parks. Here, you will enjoy the seasons, with fall colors and prominent views of snow-capped mountains, in addition to communities that offer a variety of dining, entertainment, and cultural options. And our ideal location is close to Las Vegas and only an hour away from the beach.

In San Bernardino County, you'll enjoy the amazing recreational activities, spectacular natural scenery, and exceptional climate our area is known for, along with stability in today's rapidly changing health care environment.
